Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 6-7 and 9-11 are pending and are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The closest prior art of Bernstein (U. S. Patent 5,915,023) modified by Devaux et al. (U. S. Patent 5,315,656) teaches an electronic cash system for processing a payment in an information processing apparatus. The information processing apparatus sharing a temporary key, and mutually authenticating with a management apparatus.

In regarding to independent claim 6, Bernstein modified by Devaux taken either individually or in combination with other prior art of record fails to teach or suggest decrypting at the second user device the encrypted transfer monetary amount of electronic cash and encrypted signature associated with the first user device using the temporary key; adding the second user device the transfer monetary amount of electronic cash to a stored monetary amount of electronic cash associated with the second user device; encrypting at the second user device the transfer monetary amount of electronic cash and the appended signature associated with the second user device using the temporary key; decrypting at the first user device the encrypted transfer monetary amount of electronic cash and the encrypted signature associated with the second user device using the temporary key; and subtracting at the first user device the transfer monetary amount of electronic cash from a stored monetary amount of electronic cash associated with the first user device.

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
